Uniform Guidelines

- The adherence to the school uniform is essential for maintaining discipline among students, with strict adherence to the designated pattern and colour.
- Students are expected to maintain cleanliness and ensure neatness in their attire at all times.
- The school uniform must be worn on all school days and during any school-related events.
- Parents are responsible for ensuring that their children are properly dressed in uniform before leaving for school.

BOYS

- Parents are advised to ensure that boys wear appropriate vests and underwear, avoiding coloured vests.
- School trousers should have a straight cut, prohibiting fancy styles such as flares or narrow fittings.
- Black cropped hair with no fringes and hair should not touch the collar.
- Spikes or gelling of hair is not allowed.

GIRLS

- Girls must wear skirts of the correct length, extending to or below the knees.
- It is mandatory for girls to wear grey cycling shorts beneath their skirts and white slips beneath their shirts.
- Hair neatly plaited in two plaits and should be tied with black hair bands only(III-VI)
- Hair neatly braided in single plait (VII – XII)
- In case of short hair, no front flicks are allowed, clip the hair with black hair band or only black clips.
