"Let noble thoughts come to us from every side"

Quarterly Newsletter · Session 2026–27 · Second Edition

Message from the Editorial Team

Dear Readers,

Greetings and a warm welcome to the second quarterly edition of Bhavan Times for the academic session 2026-2027.

The months from July to September have been filled with a renewed sense of purpose, enthusiasm and pride, reflecting the vibrant spirit of our Bhavan community.

A significant highlight of this period was the celebration of patriotism and national pride, with activities and assemblies encouraging our students to reflect upon the values of unity, integrity, responsibility and service. Other highlights of this quarter include the festive celebration, enriching workshops for both students and staff, Medha Manyata and Scholar Badge Award Ceremonies.

Adding to the vibrancy of the term were numerous inter-school and intra-school competitions, where Bhavanites showcased their talent, confidence and team spirit. Each event reflected the enthusiasm and determination that define our school ethos.

As you explore this issue, we invite you to relive these moments of joy, pride and accomplishment that continue to make our Bhavan family stronger and brighter with every passing term.

Warm regards,

The Editorial Team

Dear Bhavanites,

You are the reason our school shines. Every effort you make, every challenge you meet with courage and every hand you lend to a friend adds a new line to the story of Bhavan. Dream boldly, work sincerely and stay kind. Believe in yourself, because we believe in you.

Dream Boldly

Work Sincerely

Stay Kind

With love and pride,

Your Bhavan Family
